Hello Elm Street Families -

Here are some updates for you as we lead into our month of October.

Parking Lane on Elm - As you may have noticed, the parking area along Elm Street between the cross walks is now marked with white paint and new signs. This area is designated a short term drop off or pick up zone Monday-Friday between 8-4. The two blue accessible spots have been moved to either end of the cross walks. Thanks for your help in keeping our students safe!

Orange Shirt Day - On Wednesday, October 1, we will acknowledge Orange Shirt day at Elm Street. All students are encouraged to wear orange!

First Assembly - On Wednesday, October 1, we will have our first assembly! We are excited to celebrate and acknowledge a few different school groups! Ask your child about it next Wednesday after school!

Musical - The Auditions are well underway! Each day on the morning announcements, we are letting students know who is auditioning that day and who is on deck for the next day. If your child is sick, their audition will just be moved to another day. It is so exciting to see this all unfolding!

CAPs tickets - Last week, some of the Summerside Western CAPs hockey players visited the school and handed out free tickets to all students for the home opener on Friday! We hope some of you got to take in their home opener this past Friday.

Lockdown Practice & Bus Evacuation - Friday, October 3rd we will be practicing our Lockdown and Bus Evacuation Drills. Please discuss this with your children as these practice drills are just to know what to do in case we are ever in an emergency situation on the bus and need to use side or back door exits or in the classroom and need to sit quietly in a secure place in our classroom setting.
